

MARCH 2014 From The President;

The time has jumped ahead and it looks like spring might be just around the corner. Still working on the house and making plans for the yard. I'm enjoying my sewing room, trying to find some storage ideas. Soon the calves and colts will start coming and we will be busy. We are going to see our daughter in Settle before it all starts.

Have been doing some sewing. I picked out ten things I want to get done. I numbered them and then drew a number for the order I was to work on each project. The first one was a quilt I hadn't even started, so I change the rules and now I have to sew on it for one hour each time I sew. When I'm the only one playing the game, I can do anything I want.

Plans are under way for the retreat this fall, be sure and plan on coming. We have a great time and learn a lot. Invite someone new to come with you this year. Let's all work to make it the best.

I have made a couple of twister quilts. What a fun way to make old new again. It is so fun to see how they turn out.

We will need a Vice-president in July, who will be president in two years.

Be sure and check out the Minot Prairie Quilt Festival. They have a quilt show and many merchants.

The meeting will be at noon in the bar at the Grand Hotel, Saturday the 22nd of March.

See you all there. Carol

Badlands Quilters Guild Meeting Medora, ND Saturday, January 25th, 2014

The January meeting of the Badlands Quilters Guild was held at the AmmericInn, Medora, ND during the guild sleepover. President Carol Kummer called the meeting to order. Everyone introduce themselves to help us get to know each other. The minutes of the last meeting we not available to be read but were approved with the note that the sleepover date was listed incorrectly in the last newsletter.

Jody Renbarger read the treasure's report. It was approved and accepted.

The name tag policy of paying $1.00 to the kitty was waved for this meeting. Moved by Jody and seconded by Vickie. Some of the newer members were unaware of this practice and it rules will be included in the next newsletter.

It was noted that the website needed for be updated.

Old Business: Virginia Elliot agreed to take the position of Vice President.

Kathy Klang has bookmarkers done for the 2014 retreat in distribute in Minot at Quilt festival in March.

Jody and Vickie are in the process of getting the teacher forms out to those who may be interested and Diane will send an E-Mail to the membership.

The Retreat theme will be Halloween. Remember to dress for Saturday night.

New Business: Carol will contact Donna Nason about organizing the March meeting in Minot at the Quilt Festival.

Quilts and More in Sidney will do the November meeting, Watford City will do September. May and July are open. Please let Carol know if you or someone you know is interested in either of these dates

The sleepover accommodations are great. We will pass the hat for a tip for the cleaners. The AmmericInn will give us the same rate for next year. The ladies from Plentywood will organize a flea market for next year's sleepover.

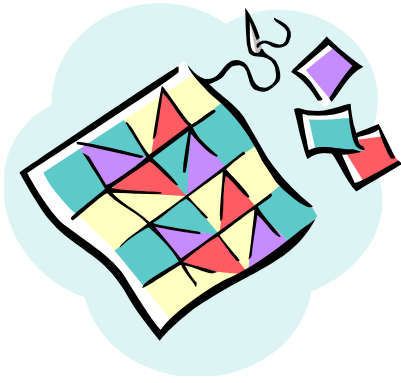

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted, Diane Ehrlich , cold weather Secretary

Kathy Klang has bookmarks ready for the March meeting in Minot. Please pick some up and take back to your local quilt shops. We hope you are looking forward to October and Retreat.

Mary Olson reported that we now have 71 paid members. She will be in Houston in March so if anyone wants to renew or join just talk to one of the other officers.

Name tags at meetings: Some new members were not aware of the name tag game at BQG meetings. Everyone is encouraged to wear a name tag...any you have from a past event, work, one you make..Those who do not wear a tag but $1.00 in a kitty, those who did wear a tag get their name in a drawing and the winner gets ½ of the kitty and the guild gets the other half. Just a fun little thing to help us get to know each other.
