

September 2014

PRESIDENTS COMMENTS:

Fall is coming and that means retreat time. It is not to late to sign up and all the classes are still available.(except the baby doll). We need your ideas for improving attendance at retreat and increasing interest and membership.

I have been busy moving my sewing to a room in back of my house. It has been a real adventure but I look forward to having all my sewing in one place.

Hope to see you all in Watford City on the 20th and at retreat in Oct.

Badlands Quilt Guild Meeting

Glendive, Montana

12:00 Noon Saturday, July 19, 2014

The July meeting of the Badlands Quilters was held July 19 at the Yellowstone River Inn in Glendive Montana. There were three members and one guest present—Virginia Elliot, Kris Jacobson, Janet McCabe, and guest Barbara Wivholm (Janet's mom.)

Lunch was at noon MDT, with meeting to follow at 1 pm.

Since we had no agenda and small attendance, we had no formal meeting. We discussed some of the issues facing the Guild and hope for better turnout in September.

We are still looking for someone to take the Secretary position.

Next meeting will be in Watford City on September 20.

Respectfully submitted,
Janet McCabe Secretary

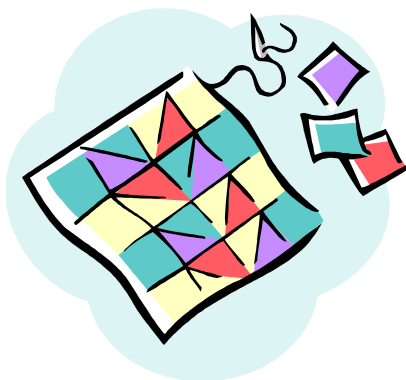

The Retreat is almost here and our numbers are very low. We have 30 signed up and we had to cancel 2 classes already, Royal Star and Baby Doll Bed and the other classes are very small, including the national teacher. What we need now are ideas on how to proceed from here. For those of you who are not coming this year, we would really like to hear any ideas that you may have so we can bring them up at the meeting Saturday. We decided last year that we would keep the Retreat as is for this year and then address changes after we found out the numbers. Please email or tell someone anything that you would like us to consider as we decide the future of the Retreat. We need as much input as we can get. If we don't hear from people, decisions will be made with the people that are present. Times have changed and we made need to change, too.

I have contacted the committees and have heard from almost all of them as to how things are going. Thank you to those who have gotten back to me and thanks for your help!!!!

Kathy

We did not have to cancel the Royal Star. We now have about 40 for the Retreat. Still plenty of time to sign up!!!!

HOPE TO SEE YOU IN WATFORD CITY. Be sure to shop the 40% off specials at Barretts before or after the meeting.
