Badlands Quilt Guild Members...It's almost here but NOT to late to join your fellow Quilters at Retreat!!! If you do not have plans to attend, give it some thought. It is a fun time to quilt, shop, take classes, and visit and talk quilting. Doesn't get much better than that. Check out the website or face bookpage for class and registration information. The Friday nite Stamped and Stenciled class and the 2 day ND Star class were cancelled due to low enrollment but there is room and any other class you would be interested in.

The retreat enrollment continues to be down so don't just think "maybe next year". The Guild needs your support now! Come. You'll like it!!
